AGREEMENT

This agreement is for the legal services to be rendered by Christopher Legal Group, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Attorney"), in connection with the formation of a new corporation by _____ (hereinafter referred to as "Client").

I. Client employs Attorney to perform legal services, and agrees to pay Attorney's fees of $ _____ in connection with the formation of the new business entity according to the services requested by Client on the Corporation Order Form that will be completed by Client.

II. Client agrees to: be truthful and cooperative; keep Attorney informed of any developments which may affect this matter; abide by this agreement; pay any amounts owed to Attorney in a timely fashion; and keep Attorney informed of Client's address, telephone number, and whereabouts.

III. Attorney agrees to be truthful, cooperative, and to keep Client informed of the status of this matter. Attorney further agrees to use his best efforts to return inquiries from the Client within 24 hours of receipt of said inquiry.

IV. Client may terminate Attorney at any time. Notice of termination from Client shall be in writing. Termination of this engagement shall not discharge Client from paying Attorney for legal services and costs related to this matter. Furthermore, Attorney may terminate this agreement at any time with good cause.

V. Attorney has not been retained to provide any tax advice concerning the formation and/or operation of the new business entity. Client should consult with his/her/its tax advisors as soon as possible regarding this matter.

VI. This Agreement will not take effect until 1) Client returns a signed copy of this agreement, 2) Attorney accepts employment by signing and returning a copy of this agreement to Client, and 3) Attorney receives the payment in full from Client.
